

Art & Design Department recently hosted a captivating and diverse art and craft exhibition, showcasing the creative process of its students in University of Jhang. The exhibition served as a platform for artist to display their talents, share their perspectives, and engage the community in celebration of artistic expression. The art exhibition at the University of Jhang was graced by the esteemed presence of Mr. Asif Ali Malik, the Additional Registrar of the university. Mr. Malik, known for his deep appreciation of the arts, took the time to explore the diverse collection of artworks on display and engage with students. Moreover, the Heads of all departments were also actively involved in the exhibition, (Mrs. Rimza Sikandar (HOD, Art & Design Dep), Dr. Sami, Dr. Nisar, Dr. Usman, Dr. Amjad Rahman and many more overseeing the artworks produced by students. Their presence highlighted the interdisciplinary nature of the exhibition, showcasing how art can transcend departmental boundaries and serve as a unifying force within the academic community. The exhibition featured a wide range of artistic styles, from traditional paintings and Textiles to avant-garde installations and digital art. The diversity of the artworks reflected the multicultural and multidisciplinary nature of the University of Jhang's student body. Visitors were treated to a visual feast, with each piece telling a unique story and contributing to the overall tapestry of the exhibition. The students demonstrated a high level of skill and creativity, exploring themes ranging from social justice and environmental sustainability to personal introspection. The exhibition provided a valuable opportunity for these emerging artists to gain exposure and connect with a broader audience.
