It is a great privilege to present a new edition of newsletter with a brief description of the activities held at University of Jhang for the past few months. All life activities were put to halt due to the rapid breakout of COVID-19, however the University of Jhang remained determined and steadfast with its goal of achieving dynamic success in its academic and administrative activities. The on-campus classes were commenced from January 10, 2021, adhering to strict observance of SOPs.

The remarkable achievement of University of Jhang is getting the university recognized by HEC (Higher Education Commission), that has opened the avenues of excellent opportunities for the students and faculty members. The University of Jhang always prioritize academic excellence, therefore we arranged a faculty development program for the training and grooming of faculty members in academics & research. We also organized a workshop on curriculum design, afterwards several departments conducted Board of Studies to design modern and updated curriculum.

We highly appreciate and recognize the importance of Women power, so we arranged a seminar on women day, titled as "Empowering women through Higher Education" with observance of SOPs. Health is the supreme priority; therefore, we organized a seminar on "Pandemic: Awareness, Precautions and Safe Life." Our students of Fine Arts showcased their talent in a mini project display and we celebrated the victory of our students who won several division level competitions. Apart from academic excellence, we also ensure to focus on character building of the students, so we arranged a seminar on "Islam aur Tashkeel e Kirdar."

Our faculty is working very hard for creation, dissemination and management of knowledge and personality development of students. I am very thankful to our highly learned faculty members for their full cooperation and support.

Dear Students

We all wish to see your energy, your courage, the spark in your eyes and zest with which you want to be a productive member of society. I would advice you all to take care of yourselves and your parents during Covid by observing SOPs. The Government of Punjab has spent a lot of money to provide you with highly qualified and the best teachers. So be honest to yourself and the hopes vested in you. Dnot miss your classes. Teachers are here for your help, in case of any problem you can reach out to your teachers and HODs for guidance. I, on behalf of University of Jhang, want to tell you that you are our assets and we value all of you equally.

Looking forward to see you soon.

Prof. Dr. Shahid Munir
Vice Chancellor - UOJ
